It's All About the Money!

You have worked hard all summer saving up those paychecks, but how do you know you picked the best bank account for your money? Check out our new Starting a Bank Account to make sure you are putting your hard earned cash into the right place!

Starting A Bank Account

Questions To Ask the Bank

- What do you require to open a bank account?
Example: How much money do you need to open a bank account?
- Do they have monthly service fees?
- Are there any other ways to avoid fees?

- Example: Is a monthly service fee removed if you use direct deposit or maintain a certain amount in your account?
- Who is available to help if I need accommodations?

Will you be charged a fee to use your money?

Do they offer overdraft protection?

Meet Davis Rodriguez Youth Engagement Coordinator

Davis lives in Sedalia, KY with his wife and 4 kids. He loves hanging out with family and friends, working with youth at his church, and occasionally finds the time for video games. He's looking forward to working with youth across the state to create a better, more accessible Kentucky.

Meet Nick Carpenter Youth Educator

Nick lives in Berea, KY. When he's not working he likes to play tabletop games (He's a GM!), watch movies and he's a writer. Nick loves his job because he is excited to work with youth on everyday things - but he really loves teaching them to use their own voices to advocate for their own success.

Coming Next Month.....

Voting! The elections aren't until November 7, 2023 - but that doesn't mean you can't start preparing now. Watch for the next newsletter that will answer your questions on how to register, where to go and most importantly.....how to learn about the candidates so you can vote responsibly!
